

Colon. Office, Boston, Oct. 15, 1857
Dr. James Hall

Dear Sir. The Rev. E. W. Stokes, of Monrovia, wishes to know whether he can have a passage home in the Society's ship in November, and what is the last day on which he may present himself for that purpose.

He would prefer to remain a month longer, if he can engage a passage then in C. P. Clarke's Antelope, or otherwise; but if unable to make such a bargain in Naron, must go in the Stevens.

Horne, I am told, did not know that he started a story about a "famine".

Yours, as ever,
Joseph Tracy
