Mr Hall

My dear Sir.

I did not forget my promise to call & see you when in Baltimore, but I was so much pressed with duties I had to attend to in Sydney, that I could not make good my engagement.

I found on my return to New York that we had sent provisions to Mr James in Sept. of which he was not aware when he wrote, & we have no occasion therefore to send him anything.
