Col. Rooms,
Wash. City, 30 March 1858

My Dear Sir

Yours of yesterday is received with its inclosures. If those Mill irons do not cost too much, we will pay for them. He, Heagn is one of the employees of Caruystburg—or was—but whether he will be, or whether we will owe him any thing when the ship gets out again, is doubtful. So please get a rough estimate of the cost of what he wants.—I fear it will be all like the other mills—my good if the trees won't only bring themselves & say Saw me!

That 4 cents for the boards is very small business. But if nothing else can be done better, you must do that!

Give the watches to Mr. Gould to repair.—

The only good I can see about your purchase is that you will be as near Wash. as Balt. & that you will get into the Cais & come this way instead of going that!

James Hall M.D.
Baltimore

Yours very truly
Wm. Sain
