Dear Sir

I am really sorry to give you so much trouble in this matter, but anxiously that my Son should receive his box of books, papers, revisions etc, ~~as directed as~~ possible, prompts me to address you once more on this subject.
I learn from the Navy Dept. that the Bainbridge will sail on or about the 10th - will go to the Cape de Verde.
In the last letter I recd from my Son - dated Monrovia 2nd of Jan^y - he gives me various directions for mailing letters, etc, to different places, up to June 1st at Funchal, Madeira. How long he will remain there, or where his
