

Will you then please purchase five barrels of the best flour you can find here all shipped together and a Bill of Lading forwarded to Robert & another to me. I must also ask you to pay the freight to Baltimore on these things, just shipped & draw on me at sight for the bill of flour, & all other expenses incurred here. Robert will pay the freight by the "M.C. Stevens" in Memoriam -

I will try not to forget the Camwood, & will write to you in a day or two. This is our yearly meeting week, so that I have not had much time for business.

Yours very truly
