

To New York May 4/58

Dr Geo Hall -

Dear Sir -

This is in acknowledgement of the remittance by you of the 3rd inst. -

I am glad to know that every thing has gone forward to Africa & should have been pleased to have known the names of Cabin passengers & shall probably learn by letter I am expecting from R. G. Armstrong of your city, who I hoped got a passage for Mrs. Coker & her and also for some goods or stores he was desired to forward to Africa. I have a faint idea of the care you must have & have had for years in your relation to Colonization
