

Colon. Office, Boston, May 4. 1858
Dr. James Hall

Dear Sir. Mr. Pratt has twenty dollars for Miss Mahony. Will the ship be delayed long enough to receive it? If not, and if you can send it by the ship, we will refund to you.

Is Dr. Laing still at Baltimore? If so, please thank him from me for forwarding the despatch from Pres. Roberts, and tell me, or ask him to tell me, how he is, and when he is coming north.

I have sent you two packages, by mail, for Pres. Roberts. Have you received them? And did the second arrive in season? If it was too late for the M. C. Stevens, please return it by mail, and I will send you the stamps.

Very truly yours,
Joseph Tracy
