My Dear Sir

I did not go to New York to day - Soon after I wrote you Friday - I was ~~then~~ violently ill with the trouble in my throat I have been in bed ever since I am much improved to day - but have no prospect of being worth much this week -

Had in all an that George is safe in old England -

Your last epistle is received & shall have attention - If you see Dr. Sains tell him I have been sick - The Com. Mr. G. will manage his business - He has always thought that I did not do him well - I have laid all on me - I hope he
