

Sir Dr James Shell

I received this morning's letter from you informing me there had been a Box sent to the Office you supposed from me

Mr Owen & sent to Liberia wrote me he would be greatly obliged to me to send him one hundred and fifty pounds of Tobacco to buy a pair of Oxen to carry his produce to Market with and I have been very anxious to oblige him I put in the Box a letter for him and sent by Mail a letter to Capt Needham to attend to it to pay the Freight and see it certainly at the Office and to write me by Mail and I would send on the money and to buy him a barrel of Tobacco and send on with it not getting in
