

I wrote to a lady in Bal for a how no dealings there the letter to ask Medham was never received by him I expect and I regret greatly its being left for I took so much trouble to get the ^{letter} the school was most costly and the disappointment to Harrison so great that I would not have had it left for double its worth may how it taken care of I shall be in Bal the last of this month and will be at the office if I can get any one to show me the way to it to try to get it sent before November and to thank you for your interesting yourself in it
