Dear Sir

Our Treasurer has accepted the draft enclosed to me in your letter of the 10th inst. & I now return the same to you — I forgot to ask him for a check for amt of freight on goods for Ship M. C. Stearns — will leave the matter in your mind and penit.

Your advice or acquiescence in the matter of Dr. Dym's passage was probably judicious — You are aware of the fact that we paid the Dr One Hundred Dollars to provide for his passage in the Cabin — the other arrangements we of course had no hand in.

Very truly

Dr. James Hall
