My Dear Sir

I return the correspondence.
You have done so well that I suggest that you write another letter for publication at Lockport a little more full & explicit touching your reasons for supporting African Colonization. That is the very place where the Truth for the cause should be made known. In this way, I think you would do much good, & I shall be glad to republish your letter. I am more anxious for this as Preston King in the Senate, has just spoken of the opposition of our Free Blacks to Liberia &
