

Col. Rooms,
Wash. 6 Oct. 1858

My Dear Sir

Yours of 10th Sept.
was forwarded to me in New York — but too late for Dr. Moore to get aboard the U. S. Trig. Niagara.

I submitted it to the Executive Committee at their meeting the 1st inst.
and they instructed me
to say that it is contrary to their policy to give any body a free cabin passage.
That we do not give our own doctors one — and
