

Providence Oct 6th 1858.

Sir

I had a letter from Mr Thomas Howland, saying that you would look after a trunk that was coming to me from Monrovia West Africa in the ship Caroline Stevens.

The Rev Daniel Henshaw is coming to Baltimore next week and says if I ^{did} have not get it by that time he will forward it to us.

And if you get it will you please forward it to Daniel W. Gardiner No 40 Pond Street Providence Rhode Island.

Will you please to put with it the bill of freight.

Yours &c

Daniel W. Gardiner.
