

Colon Office, Boston, Oct. 11. 1858
G. M. S. Hall Esq.
Dear Sir.

Boston is a bad market in which ~~to buy~~ New York Fives, as nobody has them if he can help it. However, after going to one bookseller, two Treasures and four Brokers, I have succeeded in finding the articles, and enclose them. Any body that has them is glad to part with them for Boston bills.

Orcutt's Telegram is to be sent tomorrow morning.

If our emigrants take out boards to build houses, may they nail them together so as to make themselves something like staterooms? It might be done in a day.

Yours, truly,

Joseph Peirce
