D. C. WHITMAN, Sec'y.

Union India Rubber Company,

WAREHOUSE, No. 41 JOHN STREET.

New-York, Octo^r 20th 1858

Mr. James Hall;
Balto. Md.
Mr. Sec'y.

I take the liberty of addressing this note to you, covering a letter to the Rev. Mr. Hambe, of the African Mission; on the subject of the sailing of the "M. C. Stevens".

My object in writing is to ascertain, with certainty, if possible, the latest day on which the "Stevens" will be at the wharf in Balto. -

I suppose this can be learned from some person or persons who will control the matter of her sailing - perhaps it may be yourself. -

From the circumstance, I am about to state, you will understand, and appreciate entirely, I hope, why the information we seek is of much importance to us. -

One of the passengers about to take the "Stevens" is Mr. Geo. Hubbard, who goes to Cavalla, as a Missionary from the Episcopal Miss Soc: and he is
