

I will however make an earnest effort, & I must hope that every thing considered, you will find it convenient to gratify your kind disposition in favoring me a little
4. I go in the steamer by all means. I am sighing daily for my quiet berth on board; tired as I am of tilting about - with certain other things not very agreeable to a Liberian.

Unless something more than I now know of arises to prevent it, I expect to be in Baltimore next Tuesday or Wednesday.

I am dear Sir

Yours respectfully
F. Burns
