

I now write on business. Seeing a statement in the New-York Colonization Paper, that books of instruction were needed at the "Gracy Rectitude," I shall send ten volumes to Monrovia, to your care, by Express, paying the expense to Baltimore. I should be glad to have them go by the Mary Caroline Stevens, on the 1st of November. If there is any charge for freight, please send me the Bill.

Yours with respect,
L. H. Sigourney.

P.S. Perhaps I should state that within the package, is a small one for Mr Augustus Washington, of Monrovia.
