

That he was to pay the remainder when he met you - I trust he did so, and that the whole matter is satisfactorily adjusted. He desired much to settle the acct in Boston, and obtain his receipt in full: but as this could not be in the circumstances, he took my receipt for the $133.06, and expected to have yours on paying the balance, as I have said -

Please let me know the result of the case.

Yours very truly
John Brewster

G. W. S. Hall, Esq.,
Baltimore -

P.S. all the effects of the family of Skeen who backed out at the Wharf, are gone to Liberia!
