

Mr James Hall Chestnut St. Phila.
No 8 28
Glad to hear

I was not at home when yours of the 16 of October reached the Office having depended of hearing from you I had written to a gentleman to get a Parcel of Iron and send by the Navy Line he writes me it was too late

The one you were so good as to buy for me was in time and I hope that our The Box of 200 will reach its destination with my sincere thanks for your attention to my wishes I remain

Yours faithfully
G. L. Young
I enclose you 10/10/57 in money for I get the Stamp
If I was forgetful in not signing my name can you not equally so in not telling me when to send
