My Dear Sir,

I was the opinion of Dr. Loring that medicines would be needed for the Mass. Emigrants in addition to what is furnished by the Colo. Society; and at my suggestion, he made out a list which I will enclose for your inspection. It strikes me the doctor goes in largely for Ale & Brandy, at least; and that the Emigrants have sickness enough to anticipate, if they are to take the amount of medicine prescribed! Please tell me what you think of it, and return the list to me -

Yours very truly

Dr. James Hall -

Baltimore.
