

in a private, business transaction, as his voucher for the payment of a certain debt which he contracted through me. Of course I expected the bill to be presented and the obligation discharged before Lewis left Boston, i.e. so far as I was concerned. I supposed my letters on the subject plainly indicated this, as also yours of the 25th Ult. in which you say, "I regret not being able now to give you a mem. of freight on goods purchased for Enock Lewis, but will send that in time". As it did not come, I submitted amt^{ts} due for purchases &c. according ^{to} acc^{ts} presented, and informed you that Lewis would pay the balance on his arrival at
