

Mr. G. W. Hall to Foreign Missionary Rooms,

Baltimore

19 AND 20 BIBLE HOUSE, NEW-YORK.

November 23 1858

Gentlemen

I have until now overlooked a request of the Rev Mr Rambo contained in letter to me dated 3rd inst.

He says - 'ask Mr Hall in regard to 4 Boxes dry Goods (2 from Cincinnati and 2 from White Plains N.Y.) which were to go by the M. C. Steamer. but of which I am unable to find any trace.

Can you give me any information respecting the above? The Barken Homer will sail from this port for the Coast of Africa about the 1st Dec -

Very truly
Yours
W. D. Demarest
