Dear Sir

A few days before the departure of the M. C. Stevens for Liberia. I forwarded to your care, a box for a friend of Liberia together with a package of letters, also enclosed in a letter the money to pay the freight, on the articles to Liberia, I am not aware that I requested you in the letter to acknowledge its receipt. There were many valuable articles in the box & important letters. I have now to request most respectfully of you, to write word, as to whether, you recd. the articles, also, acquaint me if you please in your letter, when your vessel the President Benson will leave for Liberia.
Accept if you please my thanks for the kindness rendered me during my stay in Baltimore.

respectfully Yours
