Dear Sir,

Will you have the kindness to place in some safe and comfortable place the native Youth Edward Neufville, who goes with James Thomson in the Stevens. I shall need his services the present year in U. States to assist me in some Grebo publications. I had expected to come myself by the Stevens, but find it impossible in a few days to put in harness our new Brethren Hubbard & Messenger located at this place. I shall probably come in a month via England, or should a vessel offer direct to U. States. I will be responsible for his expenses while under your care.

E. Neufville is Baa (namesake) of late Rev E. Neufville of Christ Church Savannah Ga. whose widow now resides at or near Catonsville for the education
