Hon. J. B. Latrobe,

Dear Sir,

I feel so much interested in a certain matter which perhaps interests yourself also, that I have presumed to address you.

I was a passenger on the M. C. Stevens, as she made her recent voyage to Africa, & noticed that 4 bbls. of whiskey were carried out to a man in Monrovia, who has a grog shop there, & is already somewhat of a pest to community.

I did not know but that you might be ignorant of the fact - & that if you knew, you would use your influence against it. Surely so fine a vessel as the Stevens, engaged
