Dear Sir

Yours in reply to the one I written making certain inquiries about the box forwarded to go in the M. C. Stevens to Liberia is received the assurances given therein is all that I could possibly expect about it just now, on the arrival of the Ship from Liberia doubtless then I will be able to know whether or not it was received, will you please forward to me - such packages and letters as may be sent by my relatives in Liberia to the Colonization Office in Baltimore by the return of the Stevens?
I will pay the expense of the same please forward me one or two of the Maryland Cal. Journals & Confer a favour on Yr Hble Wm. H. Calbeck
