Milestown April 17/1860.

Dear Sir,

Enclosed is a letter, which you will please give to the captain or to any person by which it may reach its destination.

There is a box for the same person, I have directed to you, being instructed to do so by the agent in Philadelphia; if necessary will you direct it further.

If it would be no trouble, I wish you would drop me a small note, that I might know whether they reached you safely, directed to
