

Boston 18 April 1860

Dear Sir, I forwarded you by steamer on last Saturday for Boston two boxes of books, to be shipped by the packet to Liberia. I hope they were honourably received forwarded as desired to President Benson.

I also sent a letter to you via for Dr. Isaac H. Brown, who is going out in the packet of the 10th for Liberia. I have enclosed letter for President Benson, with you, to see that it is forwarded.

Respectfully, your obedient servant

Dr. James Hall.
