

my introduction to Bishop Payne and his excellent lady who have long been engaged in arduous labors for the benefit of two continents and two interesting races of men.

With Mr McLain I was more fortunate I had the pleasure of his company on board the Talomico on her way to Savannah and also in the city during my stay. His arrangements were admirable and successfully executed.

I have been asked by friends what is the tonnage of the Stevens?

Has she any arms on board for defence?

Yours respectfully
