Dear Sir - I must beg pardon for again trespassing upon your time - but I enclose a letter to Frank which I beg you to read. I'm just I guess it is in reply to one from her - My earnest wish & our heart's was to have had her succeed well in freedom - I see nothing for her to do but come home as we expect her - If she comes will you be so kind as to pay her passage in one of the Steamers to this place - Tell her she had better keep quiet on the way not giving her history or saying any thing about herself if she wishes to do well - I to be unmolested here - God has blessed us with one of the prettiest & best of homes - I will ~~not~~ debit the money to you for her passage as soon as she arrives - Excuse me I believe me - Most Respectfully E. L. M. S.
