My Dear Sir

The Castilian left her wharf at 1<sup>o</sup>6. this P.M.
The South Shore will leave Monday or Tuesday.
My things are all aboard.
But her deck house is not done — The third
one will not leave before the middle or last of the week. The cost of the war was not large enough. She must carry 400 full passengers.
A gentleman
here who is in the secrets of the slave trade assures me that there are three more vessels coming —
