

Monrovia, July 2, 1860

Dr. James Hall,
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir— Your letter dated Baltimore April 9, 1860, came duly to hand and its very interesting contents carefully perused. Please accept my thanks for the complimentary remarks you are pleased to make of my humble efforts on behalf of my down-trodden race, in the occasional pamphlets I have written.

I am happy to inform you that things in Liberia are moving on slowly but steadily. There are, I must confess, some very serious draw-backs to us; but these it is to be hoped that time and experience will remove.

The emigrants by the "Rever's" for Careyburg, are, I believe, settled in their new home. But they had trouble enough to get there. It is a matter of earnest regret that so little attention seems to be paid to the comfort and convenience of emigrants in getting them to Careyburg after their arrival in the harbor of Monrovia. They usually arrive in the "raids" and have to travel some twenty or thirty miles exposed to the inclemency of the weather.
