Colonization Rooms,
Washington, 29 Aug. 1860

My Dear Sir

Yours "In haste" is received.

Date 30 Aug. 1860,

I inclose a note for $2,000.00, at 90 days - + one for $3,000.00 at 90 days. You can doubtless get the larger one discounted more easily than the smaller one.

We want a thousand dollars - and you want two - that makes three.

If you use the three, please return me the two, or destroy it, & tell me to draw on you for the one.

Yours of the 27th came duly with its budget, to which I have given some attention - & shall complete all I can do, shortly, -

The prospect for emigrants
No. 1, is "amazing small." What can we do to fill the ship?

James Hall M.D.
Baltimore Md.

Yours, most truly
Wm. McLain
