My dear Sir,
Your favor of the 3^d is before me.
Connecticut will furnish six more, and perhaps one or two more emigrants for the Nov. expedition.
Mr. McLain is advised that we shall have about this number - I shall know definitely how many will go in a day or two, when I will forward names &c.
How had baggage better come, by steamer or freight cars, and where should it be there? It is desirable to save expense of transportation as far as practicable.
yours truly
John Greath
Dr. Jos. Hall.
