

Phily. Oct. 30. 1860

Mr. Geo. M. Hall

Dear Sir: I
enclose herewith a box for a box for Mrs. Francis Beane of Monrovia Liberia which I will be much obliged if you will have forwarded by the "M. C. Stevens". I have paid the freight to Baltimore.

I thank you very much for a pleasant visit to your father for a pleasant voyage & success in his mission.
I am glad for the cause that he has undertaken to go out, but regret that Mr. Lincoln will thus lose one vote in Maryland.

Yours truly,
B. J. Coates
