

I cannot believe her irreconcilable, young & intelligent as she is & having suffered, as she has, the penalty of her errors - I beg you will keep the terms of this letter from her, unless you feel it very desirable for her to communi-ate it. I have now but the kindest feelings towards the girl & hope of her amendment - & wish her accomplish with the hope of furthering it -

Very respectfully yours

Samuel Wells

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers

III. Correspondence Sent
 B. Letter Press Books, Shipping

3. May 1860—February 1864

1860