

At office above. I'll train you more so long. Aug 27th 60

Dear Madam - The written tells its story & I send them to save writing, as that kills me. Can you or Mr. Smith find out any thing or say anything about the Taylor?
You can see what is wanted. I fear he is in a scrape of means to cheat the bigger.
If you have acquaintance near him or can use any body that has plain good view his character - I shall be glad to hear accordingly. Then return the letters - God is known with a pleasant eye -
I try to respect you a few days -

Truly yours,

James Wells
