

Simply to their queries, & this long communication, you might very naturally ask how much I would give, for a purpose in which I feel so great an interest. I should be forced to answer, nothing. I did hope, at one time, to make arrangements, for connecting my name with such a worthy ad-vocation in my old home, Cape Polaris, but having been bewildered out of a much larger amount than I intended using for that purpose, I was forced to close the affair by refusing the residue & pursuing bread & meat. Notwithstanding this showing up, I trust you will consider my intent in this severe implication upon you, as well meant, & I feel under the circumstances, at least for -

I am most truly & respectfully Yours
