Gentlemen:- We are to the close of another term of the Hall School, and the year: and I am thankful, to say, that it finds teacher and scholars in the best of health. When I entered upon my duties again this term, I found the school considerably disorganized. The whole of my first class left school during my absence and never returned, I proceeded at once to reorganize the school in the following manner:-

My second class was made my first, and the third the second, and ~~fourth~~ fifth advanced in like manner; and so they stand at the present. The scholars were supplied with books to suit their capacity. The number of scholars on roll at present are ninety. One first class numbers Six; the second class, thirty, the third, twelv
