FAIRLEE NOTES.

The Telephone Co. is taking care of its patrons by relieving the congestion on lines 195 and 196. There were more than 12 on each line. This trouble is remedied by adding a new line.

The entertainments by our churches on last Friday and Monday evenings were well received. Weather conditions were somewhat against them.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. M. Bramble are visiting Mr. Bramble's sisters, in Lynchburg, Va.

A large class was initiated in the Fairlee Grange last Wednesday evening. This Grange boasts of having more members than any other Grange in the county.

Mr. Wm. G. Smyth, State Lecturer, visited different sections of Western Maryland last week in the interest of Grange work.

Mr. and Mrs. M, P. Lee tendered the bridal party Mr. and Mrs. George C Lee a reception Thursday evening in last week.

Mr. Stein, the amusement man at Tolchester during the summer season, has already started in on additional attractions for the incoming season at the Beach.

The reception given by the young men in Fairlee Hall on last Thursday evening week was a pleasant event and many ladies and gentlemen were royally entertained.

Since Ground-hog day the weather has not been ideal.

Mr. Herman Klein is installing the machinery in his new building for grinding all kinds of tools and grain.

Mr. Howard Jones, our poultry man, is booking order after order for eggs from his thorough-bred poultry.

NEW CONTRACTS FOR TOMATOES.

MILFORD, Del., Feb, 2—The trouble which had been experienced between the tomato grower of this section and the canners is rapidly adjusting itself. Last week a committee was appointed by the tomato growers to seek means whereby a settlement satisfactory to both parties of the trouble could be found, The Committee made its report this week in which there were several changes from contracts made in past years. It is thought that the plan will be satisfactory to both the canners and growers. The scheme outlined by the committee is as follows: No grower shall contract with a canner for more than six acres of tomatoes, the crop from which he must deliver to the canner, in first class condition. Tomatoes delivered overripe will not have to be accepted by the canners, The canners are to unload these tomatoes within three hours after they are delivered to factory; and if growers are compelled to leave their baskets at the factory, the canner must furnish them with an equal number of baskets in order that they may handle their crop as quickly as possible.

The price paid for the tomatoes has been made a little higher, but the growers give the canners the benefit of a lower price during the rush season when they will be overcrowded The schedule of prices follows: Price per ton of 2,000 pounds is to be $10 for all tomatoes delivered before August 24; all delivered from that date to September 21 are to be bought for $9 per ton; while all delivered after September 21 will sell for $10 per ton.

The canner is protected from the grower who hauls the tomatoes at all times of the night by the clause which reads: "The grower is not to deliver tomatoes earlier than 7 o'clock in the morning or later than 5 30 in the afternoon, or 12 o'clock noon on Saturday

GRANGE NOTES.

The officers of Sassafras Grange were duly installed on their regular meeting night by Deputy Organizer James T. Anthony. At the same meeting seven new members were received, after which a delightful supper was served, consisting of fried oysters, biscuits, coffee, etc., which was enjoyed by all present, The officers installed were as follows:

Master—R. Bradford Johnson.
Overseer—H. Rosin.

Ceres—Mrs. R. B. Johnston.
Flora—Mrs. H. Rosin.

Despite the inclement weather an interesting meeting of the Kennedyville Grange was held on Monday evening, and a number of important items of business were transacted. Five new members were favorably voted upon. First and second degrees will be given to all candidates next Monday evening, Feb. 10th. Harry J. Hill, Wm. M. Clendaniel, Jr. and J. C. Redmile were appointed as a committee to attend the meeting of tomato growers in Still Pond on Saturday, Feb. 8th, at one o'clock. Resolutions have been presented and adopted to the effect that the School Board of Kent county be petitioned to erect a new school building at Kennedyville. The following is the programme for Monday evening, Feb. 10th: "How to make the Parcels Post a strong bond between the Producer and the Consumer," to be discussed by Mrs. Wm. T. Baxter and J. C. Redmile; "How shall we wake our farmers up to a realization of their opportunities?" also a "Report of Domestic Science Course by Miss Shafer. The State Traveling Library which has been in use in our Grange for several weeks is very popular with the members.

NEW GRANGE ORGANIZED.

Galena, a pretty town of a few hundred inhabitants in the upper part of Kent county, Md., became the centre of Grange attraction Thursday last when the writer, with the assistance of the Worthy Ceres of our State Grange, Mrs. A. V. Crew and her jolly husband, Mr. T. E. W. Crew, completed the organization of a Grange at this place with thirty five members, this being the sixth organization in this grand county, noted for its fertile soil, lovely homes, manly men and cultured and beautiful women. Odd Fellows Hall was place of meeting. The following were elected and installed officers for the current year:

Worthy Master—Dr. E. A. Scott.
Overseer—A. L. Beaston.
Lecturer—E. C. Walters.
Steward—A. A. Woodall.
Asst. Steward—Holt Woodall.
Chaplain—Rev. Alfred Smith.
Treasurer—Jas. Caldwell.
Secretary—W. T. Caldwell.
Gate-Keeper—John Merchant.
Ceres—Mrs. E. A. Scott
Pomona—Mrs. W. T. Caldwell.
Flora—Miss Mamie Quinn.
Lady Assistant Steward—Mrs. A.R Prettyman.

ROCK HALL NOTES

Death of Mr. Blackiston—Rebekah Lodge Entertains—Other Items.

Mr. John J. Blackiston, long a prominent citizen and business man of this section, died very suddenly on Saturday afternoon at his home. John was a fine neighbor, good citizen and a hustler in business. He had been in poor health for several years during which time his going in and out among us has been retarded and everyone has missed him greatly. Besides his widow, two children, Columbus Blackiston and Mrs. Charles Crouch survive. Funeral services conducted by Elder Paap took place at S. D. A. church on Tuesday afternoon in the presence of a large assembly.

This section is much pleased with the change of proprietorship of the wrapper factory in this town. Everyone feels sure that Mr. Kramer, who is a hustler from hustleville will greatly enhance the prosperity of the community.

Rock Hall now has two busy days in each week. Mr. M. T. Miller has established Tuesday as a special bargain day at his store on Cross St. It is nip and tuck now between Miller and Alexander whose special bargain day is Wednesday, and between the two the problem of the high cost of living is being solved. So "let the bug hop" The more the merrier says Max. Who will be the next to hoist the special bargain day flag?

As per announsement Mrs. Susan G. Miller, president, and Mrs. Susan Jones, secretary of the Md. Reb. Assembly I. O. O. F, paid Rock Hall Reb. Lodge No. 30, a fraternal visit on Thursday evening of last week and gave ritualistic and other instructions before a goodly number of the membership. Both ladies made cheering addresses during the lodge session. After the close of the regular meeting the doors were opened for the admission of invited guests and a large number entered. The following program was then most happily rendered: Song, America, by the audience; brief opening remarks by a local member of the lodge; selection by the orchestra; song by Miss Mary A. Davis; address, Beauties of the Rebekah Degree by Mr. Miller; selection by orchestra; dialogue by Frances and Bennie Coburn; address, The benevolent influence of the Rebekah branch of Odd Fellowship, by Mrs. Jones; song, by Mrs. Marvie Hubbard; select reading by Mrs. Josephine Diehl; selection by orchestra; song, from Jerusalem to Jerico, by Mr. W. T. Downey; humorous address by Rev. J. W. Prettyman which convulsed the large audience in loud and long laughter. An abundance of refreshments was then served, during the partaking Rev. Mr. Prettyman and Mr. Downey entertained with song. The whole affair was one of the most joyous in a long time. Rev. Mr. Prettyman, who is a welcome guest at nearly all the fraternal entertainments of this place, declared the addresses of the visiting ladies from the city were the best he has yet heard. Mrs. Jones certainly is a fluent and forceful speaker and can go her illustrious husband, Mr. Wm. A. Jones, Grand Secretary of the Md. Grand Lodge one better in speech making.

Hurrah for Representative Cummins, who placed little Delaware right side up on the map of our good continent.

The 38th Annual Blue Book of The Sun has been distributed among the Sun readers of this section. It is brighter and better than ever.

The bright sunshine of Sunday last seems to have put the ground hog on the job. Such weather as Monday. Oh, my!

Elder Paap delivered a very interesting sermon in the S. D. A. Church on Tuesday evening. His theme was "The Eastern Question," from the standpoint of the prophecy recorded in Rev. 8 chap

Mr. Marion Downey and family who moved to the city previous to Christmas will move back here the coming week. They will open up and conduct the Chesapeake House.

Mannie Miller's special bargain sale on Tuesday was all that could be desired. The concensus of opinion among the purchasers was that no better bargains were ever offered here.

The Spring Presents the Best Time to Buy Your Home or an Investment in Land.

I have 30 Valuable Farms in Kent alone, which can be bought at prices that will make these propositions superior to anything in which you could invest for a sure, steady investment.

These farms are for sale—not put up because they are worthless—but because the owners, for reasons of health, or too much land to till, or wanting a smaller farm, or too much in debt, are in a measure compelled to sell.

The list I can submit to you is the result of careful investigation, and contains tracts of land that will prove a profitable investment for your Funds.

The proportion of wise investments is greater in Real Estate than in any other line of investment
