SATURDAY, APRIL 12, 1913.

FOR the first time in one hundred years President Wilson delivered his message in person to Congress on Tuesday.

THE appointment of Col. Sherlock Swann as postmaster of Balto. seems to give general satisfaction. He is a good Democrat and a business man of recognized ability.

WHEN a paper or person tells one lie it requires a succession of falsehood to defend the first one. Such is the case with the organ which is charging Senator Smith with voting against Bryan, voting against the Haman Bill. These have been proven to be wilful falsehoods. The most charitable view, therefore to take, is that they simply can't help it.

SIMPLY CAN'T HELP IT.

The Barroll organ says in reference to Senator Smith's voting for Bryan: "We know you did not."

Such a bald statement is only in keeping with their record. They even know better than Mr. Smith what he did or did not do. Mr. Smith, who is credited by even the Baltimore Sun of being truthful says: For 40 years I have worked and voted at every election for Democrats and three times supported Wm. J. Bryan!" Now then, what did your man Marbury do. Don't you know? Then ask some of your friends. He worked and voted against not only Bryan but other good Democrats.

THE Senatorial Primaries which were to have been held this coming Fall have been called off because of the new plan of electing Senators which now goes into effect. In order to elect a successor to Senator Wm. P. Jackson this year a special session of the Legislature would have to be called and arrange for said election. This is very remote because Gov. Goldsborough is not likely to call the extra session. Therefore we'll not have a Senatorial Primary this year. The Legislature of 1914 will provide the machinery for a primary and election next year for a Senator to succeed Senator Jackson and also for Senator Smith's successor. The public will have a rest on this question at least for a year, then every vote will count as the new amendment provides for the election of Senators by popular vote.

INCLUDED in the Democratic tariff revision bill is an income tax section which would require every resident of the United States who earns more than $4000 a year to pay a tax of one per cent. on his earnings in excess of the exemption. This would not require the man who earns only $4006 to pay a tax, but it would demand that the individual who earned $4100, for example, pay into the Government treasury an annual tax of 1 per cent. on $100, or $1. It is estimated that this tax will have to be paid by at least 25 persons in Kent divided as follows: Millington 2; Massey4; Galena and Georgetown 3; Betterton and Still Pond 2; Rock Hall district 3; Chestertown 11.

EXACTLY at 10.21 o'clock Friday night the fund of $1,000,000 required to insure the retention of Goucher College to Baltimore was completed, This announcement was made in one of the large rooms on the mezzanine floor of the Hotel Emerson. Gathered there were men and women who for months have labored day and night securing subscriptions to the fund. Midnight April 4th was the time set when the campaign must end. If the money as not subscribed the trustees said the college would have to go to some other city. Earlier in the evening the amount needed had been reduced from $32,000 to $8,000 and this was provided for at the last moment. This college has been going in debt at the rate of $40,000 per year for ten years. This looks like there was need for better business methods in the management.

NEW RECRUITS EVERY DAY.

From every nook and corner of Cecil county comes reports daily of new recruits to the support of Senator John Walter Smith for re-election. The Democrats of Cecil county realize the stalwart Democracy of Senator Smith and are willing and anxious that he should succeed himself. They realize the great value he has been to the party in years past, when to fight the battles of Democracy in Maryland was "not all a bed of roses." Senator Smith was at the helm piloting the good old ship over the rough sea to a triumphant victory. when the very men who are today most anxious to haul down his flag, were in the front ranks of the enemy trying to tear down the banners upon which was stamped the imprint of Thomas Jefferson and his followers.

No, no, the Democratic voters of Cecil county will not stand for these "in today and out tomorrow" Democrats being made banner bearers and to lead our stalwart army. They prefer the man who has been tried and never found wanting — Hon. John Walter Smith.

Indications point to him receiving a larger vote in Cecil county than all his opponents combined. He deserves it.—Cecil Democrat.

County Commissioners Responsible.

Under a decision of the Court of Appeals in the case of Harry T. Richardson vs. the Kent County Commissioners, and the Road Engineer, the County Commissioners were held responsible for injuries occuring on the public roads, and the Road Engineer exonerated from like liability.

This case could have been settled without trial for $150.00 and now it has cost $400 or $500 in costs and the claim not yet paid. The attorneys for the County Commissioners were paid $100.00 for talking about 15 minutes at Easton, and no body knows what amount will be charged to the tax-payers of the County for the fruitless argument at the Court of Appeals.

Oh, consistency thou art a Jewell! Why preach economy every week and at the same time squander the tax-payers money?

TO VOTE DIRECT!

Well, well, Pennsylvania has come out for direct election of U. S. Senators. There is some hope for the old State yet. According to dispatches Connecticut will take action within a week. And Connecticut will have been the thirty-sixth State to do it. Within fourteen days, therefore, that amendment will have become a part of the Federal Constitution.

Meanwhile the Senatorial campaign in Maryland proceeds right merrily.

The situation in Maryland will have to be considered on the new basis, particularly in regard to Senator Jackson who is filling the unexpired term to Senator Rayner by appointment of Governor Goldsborough, Senator Smith's term will not expire until March 4, 1915, and no elements of urgency is involved in filling his seat.

Gossip among Democratic Senators in Washington has been that the place of Senator Jackson must be promptly filled by election after the new amendment takes affect. If this is not done and there is any sign of a disposition to Senator Jackson hold over indefinitely, there is likely to be a movement to declare his seat vacant. Whether or not this would amount to anything remains to be seen.

The amendment provides as follows:

"When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate, the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of eeection to fill such vacancies. Provided that the Legislature of any State may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election, as the Legislature may direct."

If Governor Goldsborough waits until the regular session of the Legislature next January, provision made at that session for the holding of primaries and the election of Senator Jackson's successor would not take effect, in all probability, until April or May. This would enable Mr. Jackson to hold his seat for at least a year after the adoption of the amendment and would involve the cost of a special election in the spring of 1914. If the choice were deferred to the fall campaign of that year, Mr. Jackson would have served about two years from the time of Senator Rayner's death.

If the Governor should call a special session of the Legislature to make the necessary provision, primaries could be held in August or September of this year and the election in November; or it thought best, a special election could be held in a short time, as in the case of the death of a member of the House of Representatives.

Governor Goldsborough when asked whether he would call a special session of the Legislature to fill Mr. Jackson's seat, said he did not want to discuss that, as the question had not arisen. As a general principle he is opposed to special session.

MORE OF MR. MARBURY.

THE NEWS promised to give its readers some more facts as to the record of Wm. L. Marbury who says his eyes have been opened! It must be that they are opened to the Senate which he is now trying to reach. In his defense of his OCCASIONAL DEMOCRACY he declares that in Prince George's county there was no cheating at primaries, but that the primaries were perfectly fair. This is true, and is equally true of the other counties. With the exception possibly of Anne Arundel and Baltimore counties, in some parts of which conditions like those in Baltimore city existed the primaries in all the counties of Maryland during the eighties and the nineties as a rule were fair. There were really no charges of fraud respecting the county primaries even before the recent primary election laws were passed. These conditions in the counties Mr. Marbury contrasts with the conditions in Baltimore city, where the primaries unquestionably were most fraudulent. But, admitting this to be true, how does it justify Mr. Marbury's continued and repeated opposition to the State, Legislative and Senatorial tickets of the Democratic party, which he unsparingly fought year in and year out through the substance of his political life of 30 years?

Take the State tickets which he opposed. No man ever contended that Robert M. McLane, Sr., and Charles B. Roberts and J. Frank Turner were nominated by frauds on the State ticket in 1883. The counties nominated them. Mr. Marbury opposed them all.

Take the State ticket of four years later. Governor Jackson honestly won his nomination at the hands of the counties against L. Victor Baughman and Frank Brown, and Colonel Baughman showed so much strength that the party leaders, or bosses, if you please, were forced to put him on the ticket as a candidate for Comptroller, and, to make the ticket still furcher represent the popular will, William Pinkney Whyte, a former United States Senator and Governor, a leading lawyer and a political enemy of Senator Gorman and a Democrat incapable of being controlled by anybody, was named as the candidate for Attorney-General. How does Mr. Marbury's answer explain his opposition to such a ticket as that of Jackson, Baughman and Whyte in 1887, and justify his active participation in the Republican State Convention of that year and his vigorous support of its Republican nominees?

Four years afterwards Frank Brown made a fight in the Democratic primaries in every county in Maryland for the nomination for Governor. Senator Gorman was against his nomination. Mr. Rasin was pledged to Mr. Hodges, whom he would have preferred. But Brown got so many counties behind him that it was impossible to prevent his nomination. He would have been nominated regardless of Baltimore city. How does Mr. Marbury explain his opposition to a Democratic candidate for Governor who fairly and unquestionably won his nomination from the Democratic voters of the counties, and how does Mr. Marbury justify his own candidacy that year on the Republican ticket for State's Attorney of Baltimore city, and his opposition on the hustings and in the press to the whole Democratic ticket—State, Legislative and City—from top to bottom?

We will excuse Mr. Marbury's antagonism to the ticket in 1895, when many Democrats opposed it. But after four years of Republican misgovernment in Maryland, with negro rowdyism and outbreaks of disorder, and when leading independents were uniting with the regular Democats to redeem the State and restore it to Democratic control, Mr. Marbury is again found with and of the Republicans, opposing the election of Smith, Rayner and Hering, declaring against the election of a Democratic Legislature, declaring against a Democratic United States Senator in unmeasured terms and advocating Republicanism, both National and State. Mr. Marbury's answer does not explain that, because not a soul in that whole campaign and election suggested, much less charged, that any candidate on the Democratic ticket was nominated by fraud.
