Our Spring Models Defy Fifth Avenue and London

COPYRIGHT ADLER-ROCHESTER

We have customers who have paid top prices to custom tailors, and these are the very customers who now wait for our selection of ADLER-ROCHESTER MODELS.

The reason is simple. In the first place, it is not the price that makes clothes becoming.

In the next place the great firm who makes these clothes employs higher priced designers and style experts than a tailor could dream of employing.

Adler-Rochester Clothes

This name has stood for the best in clothes, for tailoring supremacy for half a century.

It is conceded that ADLER-ROCHESTER MODELS set and lead the styles, and we have yet to see a customer of ours wear an ADLER-ROCHESTER SUIT and be dissatisfied.

Besides leading in styles and finish, this great firm stands with us behind each garment that we sell, and this assures you absolute clothes satisfaction.

Drop in and let us show you some of these New Spring Models and tell you what ADLER-ROCHESTER clothes service is.

NO MONEY, NO WORDS, SHE SAYS

Mrs. Harper Declares Husband Wouldn't Speak To Her.

Among seven decrees of divorce signed yesterday by Judge Gorter, in Circuit Court No. 2, was one to Annie T. Hayes Harper, living at the Altamont Hotel, from George W. Harper. They were married February 8, 1900, in Philadelphia, both having been married before and lived together four months.

Mrs. Harper testified that she had lived at Chestertown, Md. She and her husband went on a wedding trip to New York and California and then to his home at Still Pond, Md. While in New York, Mrs. Harper also said, her husband wanted her to buy a diamond ring for $50 and tell people he gave it to her, but she refused to do so. Four or five days after their return, she also said, her husband wanted her to give $2,000 to his son, but she again refused.

Her husband, she said, told her she was mean, a crazy woman and a devil when she refused to give his son the money, and he stopped speaking to her.

In June, 1909, she left her husband and went to Chestertown with her daughter, Mrs. Beulah H. Perkins. Mr. Harper is at Still Pond.—Sun, of Wednesday.

Georgetown, Del., April 6.—A carload of oil for the 2,200 orchard stoves used on the Chandler farm, a short distance from Milton, has arrived, and will be used when the weather is cold enough for damage to be done to the peach orchard, which is said to be the most extensive in the county. On nights that are expected to be cold enough to cause frost, all the stoves are lighted in order that damage will not be caused to the peach trees. The Chandler orchards produce peaches each year when the others of the county fail, on account of the use of these stoves, which keep the frost from doing any damage to the tender buds.

LOCAL NOTES

F. E. Duyer, of Chestertown, began work Wednesday on the new dwelling for Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Westcott on Front street.

The dates for the various fairs to be held this season is as follows: Tasley, Va., July 29th to August 2nd; Pocomoke City, August 5th to 8th; Salisbury, August 12th to 15th; Easton, August 19th to 22nd; Chestertown, August 26th to 29th; Timonium, September 2nd to 8th; Prospect Park, September 9th to 16th.

The fishermen on the bay have been heavy losers lately because of high winds and drift logs. Capt. Joiner has lost $200 worth of nets within the past ten days. Some fishermen blame the scarcity of fish to the mild winter.

"Peaches are surely killed," says some expert. Ice and frost the past week have played havoc with the buds.

A Farmer of Kent placed a gallon jug of whiskey in his carriage Saturday and on the way home a couple of darkies sneaked up from behind and relieved him of same. The expression on the farmer's face upon discovering his loss would have showed well in moving pictures.

Frank McWhorter has purchased the store and dwelling of the Church Hill bank and is having it moved down Main street to his vacant lot, adjoinidg W. H. Temple's property, where it will be converted into a double dwelling.

The Marvil Package Co., Chestertown, are building an extension to their wharf of about 12 feet.

The big warehouse on the Electric Light Co.'s wharf has been taken down and the elegant lumber will be used in building a double dwelling on the lot adjoining. Mr. Harry Cannan is superintending the work.

T. V. Simpson, Chestertown, has sold to Commissioner Wm. Duyer a piece of property adjoining his home for $350.

The finest duck shooting enjoyed this year was that of Monday when Messrs. Wm. G. Smith, Barclay Kilbourn, Walter Strong, J. L. Smith and others bagged 92 black heads and whifflers off Ringgold's Point. The gunners state that they never saw ducks so plentiful and that they should have killed 150. Duck suppers have been all the rage about Fairlee this week.

The Civil Service Commission announces that an open competitive examination for the position of clerk in the Chestertown postoffice will be held in Chestertown on April 26th. Applicants must have reached their 18th but not their 45th birthday on the date of the examination. The examination is open to all citizens of the United States who meet the requirements. Married women will not be admitted to examination but this prohibition does not apply to divorced women or women separated from their husbands and who support themselves. From the eligible list resulting from this examination certification will be made to existing and future vacancies. For Application form No. 1371 and instructions to applicants, address R. Frank Elburn, local secretary, at Chestertown, Md.

A. M. Culp has been awarded the contract for building a large brick warehouse at Easton.

The body of Charles E. Bradshaw Crisfield, which was washed overboard from the oyster pungy Flora Temple on Thursday, March 6, was found upon the shore at Tolchester Beach Monday. Corner Smyth held an inquest. The deceased leaves a widow and two children. Capt. Thos Bradshaw, father of the deceased, came for the body.
