DEATHS.

John B. Parrott Expires Suddenly in His Front Yard at His Home in Still Pond—A Useful Man.

Mr. John B. Parrott, a retired farmer and prominent citizen of Kent county, died suddenly at his home in Still Pond Monday evening about 7 o'clock of paralysis of the heart, aged 55 years.

Mr. Parrott had suffered periodical attack of heart trouble for several years, and for this reason principally, was not engaged in active business, but instead was living quietly in the town of Still Pond where he had a splendidly appointed home.

On Monday evening after eating a hearty supper and attending to some little chores about his premises, he started so walk to the store, a few hundred yards from his home. He had just reached the front gate and had placed his hand on the latch when the fatal attack occurred. He threw his hands to his breast and fell to the ground. His wife and others rushed to his side only to find life extinct, death having been instantaneous.

He was President of the Commissioners and gave it his undivided attention and his faithful labors. He was an intelligent citizen, popular and helpful and fond of social events where he played a prominent part. He leaves a widow and one sister, Miss Rachel Parrott.

Funeral services were held Thursday at one o'clock p. m., Rev. F. X. Moore and Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, officiating. The interment was in Still Pond cemetery, undertaker, W. H. Krusen. The bearers were: Ellsworth C., Robert, J. Raymond and George L. Bowers, Howard Turner, Harry Busick, George Parrott, Wm. H. Bonwill.

Mrs. Alice R. Spicer, nee Rouse, widow of Jeremiah Spicer, of Dorchester, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, Baltmore, Monday, after a short illness. She was a native of Kent where she was well and favorably known. The funeral services were held Wednesday at 17 S. Broadway, interment in Chester cemetery, Chestertown, Thursday. The bearers were: W. W. Chapman, M. W. Thomas, J. T. DeCorse, Jas. A. Bradley, A. A. Harris, W. B Copper. J. E. Ferguson, undertake.

WEDDING BELLS

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brice at Betterton Tuesday, April 15th. The contracting parties were Miss Elsie I. Crew, the youngest daughter of Mrs Eben Crew and Mr. Arthur Remmington, of Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Remmington will make their home in Baltimore.

Mr. Harry Hodgkin, a prominent merchant and Miss Edna Tunis, an attractive and accomplished young lady; both of Chestertown, were married Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. T T. Horn, on High street. Dr. H. B. Martin performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate families. They boarded the Tolchester boat for a trip South and will reside upon their return in the Barnett house on Kent Circle.

Mr. Oldhan Davis and Miss Lillie M. Short, both of Cecilton, were married at Bethesda M. E. Parsonagn Monday morning at 8.30, by Dr. C. T. Wyatt The groom is a young merchant and the bride is the daughter of Enoch Short one of Cecilton's most prominent citizens.

COURT IN SESSION.

The April term of the Circuit Court of Kent county was convened on Monday, with Associate Judge P. B. Hopper on the bench. After the formal calling and adjournment of the January term, the court directed the drawing of the juries for the April term, which are as follows:

GRAND JURY—Thomas S Bordley, foreman; George E, Noland, Edmund Hurtt-Frank V. Simpers, Jessie H. Usilton, Frederick H. Cornelius, James W. Lambert Thomas J. Donahoe, John T. Quinn, John C. Davis, Lewis S. Price, B. Romie McCauley, John M. Comegys, Frank A. Coleman, Joel H. Smith, George L. Bowers, Harry C. Cacy, George W. Rash, Wm. J. Tarbutton, Gilbert Nickerson, and Wm. J. Hepbron.

PETIT JURY—Charles S. Porter, J Leonard Price, Wm. E. Parsons, Alfred T. DeShane, Louis C. Ayres, George E. Sutton, A.H. Malsberger Thomas Dunn, W. L. Faulkner, J. Biddle Hossinger, A. S. Crawford, Lambert W. Ford, Henry E. Taylor, Frank Duyer, Henry Rosin, Milton Melvin, Wm. F. Stoops, Geo. W. Weist, Neal Wilson, S. Harry Todd, W. Reybold Wilson, Louis P. Atwell, Edgar P. Beck, Abram Casey Harry Hill,

The thirteen jurors last named, were drawn in the place of the following who were excused: Wm. B. Willis, Joseph S. Clark, Wm. P. Durding, James T. Crew, Benj. B. Harris, James Leary, Ringgold Jones, L. Carroll Clark, Wm. J. Vannort-W. R. Strong, and Henry Urie.

The criminal appearence, appeal and trial dockets were called, appearances entered, orders taken after which the court took recess until 1.45 p. m.

Upon resumption of the afternoon session, the case of P. B. & W. R. R. vs. Hope H. Barroll, appeal from the docket of Justice Sam'l L. Wright, was called and jury drawn.

This case occupied the Court for some time and was a suit for demurrage of $9 against H. H. Barroll. The jury after being out for five hours could not agree and were discharged. The panel comprised A. H. Malsberger, Chas. S. Porter, Wm. E. Parsons, A. T. DeShane, T. J. Dunn, A. S. Crawford, L. W. Ford, Jacob Shriley, Geo. D. Lofland, M. E. Newsome, Jos. R. Lambert, C. C. Jones. H. H. Barroll and son represented the plaintiff and W. W. Beck the defendant.

The Grand Jury brought in the following presentments—Lester Johnson Lewin Davis, George Cann and Elbert Wright all for larceny.

In the cases of the Millington Bank vs. B. E. Davis and C. J. Conner, judgment was entered by the Court for the Bank.

In the case of Mity Graves the State entered a plea of not guilty.

Richmond Radiator Co. vs. Chas. Walter & Son for claim of about $70 was begun before a jury, the attorneys being H. H. Barroll and son and L. W. Wickes on opposing sides. Mr. Barroll asked for a non pros and the case was abruptly closed.

The case of John N. Dodd against C. W. Copper for an old claim was tried and the jury returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Copper. This case was tried last spring but the jury disagreed. John D. Urie represented Mr. Copper and H. H. Barroll and son, Mr. Dodd. The jury comprised Henry Rosin, W. L. Faulkner, S. Harry Todd, L. C. Ayres, A. Casey, H. A. Hill, H. E Taylor, Milton Melvin, L. W. Ford, T. J. Dunn, Chas. S. Porter.

State vs. Elbert Wright for larceny was tried before court; verdict, guilty and sentence suspended. H. W. Vickers for State, R. G. Parks for defendant.

Lewin Davis plead guilty to stealing a suit case from C. H. Liekle and was sentenced to penitentiary for a year. H. W. Vickers for State, J. D. Urie for prisoner.

David Hurrah plead guilty with assault and was sent to jail for 30 days. R. G. Parks for prisoner and H. W. Vickers for State.

In the case of B. S. Sutton versus P. B. & W. R. R. Co., for about $200 for loss of grain the jury returned a verdict for defendant. W. W. Beck for defendant; L. W. Wickes for plaintiff The jury comprised E. P. Beck, G. E. Sutton, F. E. Duyer, A. S Crawford, W. E. Parsons, J. L. Price, H. Rosin, L. C. Ayres, L. P. Atwell, A. Casey, H. E. Taylor, Milton Melvin.

The case of Col. W. J. Vannort versus W. H. McKee, Wm. G. Smyth and Jesse H. Copper occupied the court yesterday. This is a case in which $2,000 was borrowed from Col. Vannort by the Family Steam Laundry of which these three were directors and signed the note on the back with several others. The case was most interesting and was engaged in by S. P. Townshend for plaintiff and H. H. Barroll and L. W. Wickes for defendants.

The England case will come up today.

The Grand Jury examined 40 witnesses, found seven true bill; and reported 8 prisoners in jail whose quarters were comfortable and clean. They recommended that a few repairs be made in jail and stable: "We are of the opinion that the constant and flagrant violation of the local option law in Kent County and particularly Chestertown, has assumed such proportions that some drastic remedy must be applied to check it. We have been creditably informed that 50 or more persons of Chestertown alone, are in the habit of receiving consignments of intoxicating liquors, ranging in quantities from a gallon to a barrel, regularly every week and sometimes oftener; and while we are morally sure that such quantities of liquor are bought for the sole purpose of being sold, and are in fact sold with the utmost impunity, we are unable in spite of our best endeavors, to bring the offenders to justice."

"The repeated unsuccessful efforts of the present, as well as the former grand juries, emphasizes the utter futility of even hoping to accomplish satisfactory results without the aid of reputable detectives; and to this end, we earnestly request the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Kent County, to levy or appropriate a sufficient amount of money to be judiciously expended by the State's Attorney in the employment of such detective service as he may deem wise in assisting him stamp out this flagrant abuse."

TWENTY GALLONS of yellow perch fish fry, or approximately 500,000,000 little fish, have been placed in Kent and Queen Anne's waters—principally creeks and small streams—during the last week, by Michael McNamee, of the Havre de Grace fish hatchery. The fry should grow into good-sized perch in a couple of years

SANGER'S circus is booked for Chestertown next month.

HON. LLOYD WILKINSON IN CHESTERTOWN.

Hon. Lloyd Wilkinson will speak in Firemen's Hall, Chestertown, next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. He has challenged Mr. W. H. Anderson, of the Anti-Saloon League to meet him on that date.

Mr. Wilkinson is a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals and is carrying his fight directly before the people. He says that Mr. Anderson has gone out of his way to slander and misrepresent him and he is anxious to meet him on the public platform at Chestertown. The public generally are invited to this meeting in Firemen's Hall. Mr. Wilkinson is a fluent speaker.

GRANGE NOTES.

Fairlee Grange held a special meeting on April 17th. Committees reported on Corn Contest, Lecture on home topics, Ladies Contest, and tomatoes. Little Mildred Fletcher recited a selection in German which delighted the audience.

"The Garner" was edited and read in a pleasing and splendid manner by Miss Florence Nicholson. The articles were up to the standard and the batchelor who told how to cook white potatoes deserves a prize.

"Should the education of woman prepare her for carring on farming?" was ably discussed by Mr. T. E. W. Crew, showing clearly that it is highly important for ladies living on a farm be well informed in the business.

"Is the world growing wiser and better?" was debated by Mrs. Tillman Hudson and Mr. Stockton Startt, both showed ability and wit. It was quite a feature of the meeting.

The advantage of Parcels Post was plainly told by Mr. W. G. Smith. Music by the Grange choir.

Fairlee Grange held a regular meeting on Wednesday evening of much interest. A duet by Mrs. L. A. Stevens and Mrs. Howard Rees was beautifully sung. The following questions were discussed: "How can we enforce our local laws?" "Do modern conveniences tend to increase happiness?" "Is it wise to take up many side issues in farming?" and a general discussion of the house-fly.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mr. Stewart Price and sister Miss Catherine, of near Lynch's, were guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church, met on Thursday evening of last week, at the home of Mrs. C. M. Hurtt.

Mr. Phillip Wood, of Wilmington spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and J. P. Ahern.

Mr. E. R. Galloway has rented Mr. J. E. Hurlock's new property on Cypress street and will occupy the same about May 1st.

Mrs. David Percy and Mr. J. Glenn Anthony were on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Manning and grand-son, Walter Woodall, are visiting relatives and friends in Philadelphia

Mr. A. S. Hutt, of Delmar, was the guest of relatives in town this week.

Miss Susie Jones spent the week-end with friends in Wilmington.

Mrs. S. E. Sutton, of Baltimore was the guest of Mrs. F. C. Numbers, a couple of days this week.

Miss Margaret Huey, of Massey, visited Miss Vic Power, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Galloway spent a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. N. M. Wilson, af Wilmington, and were accompanied home by her cousin, Miss Madeline Wilson.

Rev. Wm. M. Warner died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Mallalieu on Wednesday, April 16th after a brief illness, aged 83 years. Mr. Warner at the time of his death was the oldest member of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, occupying the Supernumerary relation. During his active years of service he had served a number of different charges and was well-known on the peninsula and much loved by all who knew him. Since retiring from active work a few years ago he has made his home in Millington with his daughter. Funeral services were held at 11 a. m., on Saturday last in Asbury M. E. Church, Millington. There was present besides his pastor, the Rev. J. G. Fosnocht, the following brothers of the Conference: Rev. H. S. Thompson, Rev. Dr. C. W. Prettyman, Rev. Dr. Watt, Rev. Edwin Gardner, Rev. C. W. Moore, and a number of friends from a distance. The Rev. H. S. Thompson repeated the last christian testimony of Bro. Warner as it was written out and delivered to him by Bro. Warner only a few Sundays ago after he found it impossible to attend public service. Rev. Dr. Watt spoke of his splendid qualification as a good minister of Jesus Christ.

The choir very beautifully sang, "Jesus Lover of my Soul" and "Servant of God Well Done. Interment was made in Millington cemetery. The pall bearers were Warner Mallalieu, William Mallalieu, R. J. Taylor, John Higman, J. W. Jarvis, Walter Paynter. J. L. Smith undertaker.

A LADY WHO IS ANNOYED.

Rock Hall, April 19, 1913.

EDITORS OF KENT NEWS:

Realizing the comfort and help many have found through the columns of our worthy Baltimore papers, I felt perhaps your paper could also, be a great help in its community. Kindly tell us what redress the people have who are annoyed by the occupants of shanties on certain shores? Not by the noise at all times but realizing just what is going on, drawing men for miles around and keeping up their games of cards and drinking all night and, at times well on in the next day. This only goes on while the shanties are occupied. There being much agitation in blotting out vice. Would'nt you think this came under the same head? For one who would invite or encourage such. I feel there is little ahead for him. But why do those at home have to be subjected to the mortifications much to the amusement of others. I have noticed this for some time among my neighbors and feel it a serious matter, and it would be more than appreciated if looked into.

Respectfully,
OBSERVER
