SATURDAY, MAY 17, 1913.

THIS has been "clean-up" week in Chestertown.

THE cold snap has made the wheat look sick. The Tariff had nothing to do with it.

DUNN, RASIN and DODD as members of the State Central Committee will pilot the party safely.

THE Senate Suffrage Committee has reported favorably with only one dissenting vote.

W. J. BRYAN hopes to visit Chestertown for a few hours some time during his stay in Washington. Come early and often, Mr. Bryan.

THE announcement of Mr. Howard Turner's candidacy for the Legislature was heartily received by the people of Kent and his nomination assured. The comment could be heard on all sides, "he's the kind of man to send to Annapolis."

THE Underwood tariff bill, revising the tariff in accord with the pledges of the Democratic platform, passed the House Thursday by a vote of 281 to 139. The bill is now in the Senate, and while no doubt some amendments will be made, will probably be passed in practically its original form.

ONE full day of rest each week is assured employes in nearly all industrial and mercantile establishments throughout Massachusetts by a bill signed by Governor Foss Friday. Exceptions are made in the case of newspaper workers, janitors, bakers, drug clerks and persons carrying for fires and machinery. The measure was advocated by the Progressive Party.

E. M. TAYLOR, of Worton, candidate for county commissioner, visited Quaker Neck, Piney Neck and Rock Hall the past week and says he never met a more sociable nor a more hospitable people and feels greatly encouraged at his reception. He says Capt. Henry Thompson is specially strong below and Mr. Wm. E. Brown in Quaker Neck will sweep things.

THE Secretary of State says: "There is no load that will break a man down so quickly and so surely as a load of revenge. The man who tries to get even with others has few opportunities of gratifying his hatred; but he is all the time corroding himself."

The man with a grouch or a grievance is in that class. A sulky or vindicative temper isolates a man from all real friendships as completely as a smallpox quarantine isolates him from persons. And it makes the man as unhappy as smallpox makes him.

THE Republican State Central Committee of Queen Anne's has indorsed Mr. Wm. B. Sparks, of that county for the position of county commissioner of the county to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. William H. Cecil. There were four names before the State Central Committee for endorsement, namely: Mr. W. B Wallace, of the Fourth district; J. Thomas Smith of the Second District; John F. Quail, of the Fifth district; and Mr. W. B. Sparks, of the Sixth district.

Action of The Ladies Aid Society of Still Pond M. E. Church, on the death of its oldest member, Mrs. P. C. A. Clements:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our heavenly Father to remove from this sphere of action our esteemed friend and fellow member, Mrs. Philena C. A. Clements; and

WHEREAS, In the death of this noble, sweet-spirited, and loyal child of God, this Society, as well as the church and community have met with a great loss; and

WHEREAS, The deceased was for 30 years an active member of this society, and for seventy years a loyal member of the church, it is but meet that we should express to her numerous friends and relatives our grief and sympathy; therefore be it

Resolved, That in our sorrow in the departure of our sister we may yet rejoice in the assurance we feel that death found her ready for Heaven's roll call, having her loins girded about and her lamp trimmed and burning; And what to us is grievous loss, to her must be eternal gain.

Resolved, That we recall with greatest pleasure the fine and noble qualities of our sister, both as a woman and a christian; qualities that bound her friends in ties of strong and enduring affection.

Resolved, That we thank God for her long and useful life and the fact that she remembered her Creator in the days of her youth, and for seventy years was a consistent member of the church, and a loyal disciple of Jesus.

Resolved That we extend our heartfelt sympathies to her daughter, and other members of the bereaved family "who mourn not as those without hope"; that the God of all consolation may be their comfort is our strong desire, and fervent prayer.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the bereaved family, and be offered for publication to the county papers and church periodicals, and that they be spread upon the minutes of this society.

LIQUOR CONCEALED IN FISH

Wilmington, Del., May 13.—A new industry to overcome local option conditions in lower Delaware has developed at Lewis and at the Delaware Breakwater.

Mackerel fishermen from New England ports are supplying the "dry" section around the Delaware Breakwater with liquor by selling pints and half-pints concealed in mackerel.

"Buy a fish and get a big drink" is the slogan of the fishermen, and it is netting them considerable money.

Several days ago ingenious Yankees on a mackerel fishing boat from New England conceived the idea of going into the liquor business. They laid in a large supply of "booze" before reaching Delaware, it is said, and placed bottles of liquor inside the fish. Then the "fish and contents" were offered for sale. There was soon a big demand for the fish. Other mackerel fishermen learned of the plan and followed it. Now with the arrival at Lewes of fishermen a large number of prospective customers are always on hand, it is said.

The Most Expensive Tombstone in the World

This cartoon and editorial appeared April 3, 1913, on the editorial page of the New York Evening Journal—a newspaper with almost a million circulation daily.

Do you know any young man who is investing money in a tombstone like this? If so, hand him this picture.

Here is the tombstone that stands at the head of tens of thousands of graves. You cannot see it as you enter the graveyard, but the relations of the man in the grave know that the tombstone is there.

This is the tombstone that costs more money than all other kinds of tombstones put together.

This is the tombstone that stands above ruined hopes, broken families, disappointments, bitterness and all misery.

If you want to do something useful, without too much trouble, cut out this picture and paste it up where it will be seen by those that need it.

The huge bottle and the small glass, the weak will, the blasted career—and then the grave with the tombstone—that is the story.
