Bordley & Sons

READY-TO-WEAR CLOTHES, with all the distinctiveness and get-up characteristic of individually made garments. There are outing models made of the breeziest sorts of materials—serges, cheviots, worsteds and other popular fabrics—just as light and cool as can be. And when it comes to the making, they're tailored as skilfully as fingers, thread and brains can produce. For shapeliness and grace they cannot be surpased—and their price is mighty little for such a standard.

There are conservative, quiet patterns in our line also that will appeal to those who do not care for the outing patterns. It will amply pay you to see them before you buy elsewhere.

Get the habit of dealing at THE MEN'S STORE and let no one tell you they have "just as good," for we carry the finest clothes made in the Union—a claim we expect to hear contradicted, but one which we can fully prove. Call and see this line before the sizes are much more broken. There is still a very fine assortment.

Yours for satisfaction,

Bordley & Sons

LOCAL NOTES

G. V. BYRON sold 60 dozen soft crabs yesterday in town.

THE opera House will be opened about middle of June with a performance by the Paint and Powder Club, of Baltimore.

THE Federation Club of Chestertown held an interesting meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. W. Hubbard.

THE Parks Fertilizer case has been on trial at Centerville this week, L. W. Wickes and R G. Parks, Esqs, representing Mr. Parks.

THERE are 25 horses ready for the Decoration Day races at the Chestertown track. Messrs. Geo. Sutton, J. M. Rising and John Mallalieu have some fine goers in training.

THE fleas are playing havoc with young tomato plants.

THE fishing season is drawing to a close, and in fact many of the fishermen have cut out. The catch of both shad and herring have been light, and the season far from a profitable one.

J. W. RUSSELL, broker, has sold the Grover Hadaway place on Lankford Bay to John Dorsey, of Baltimore. Price reported to be about $1,000. Mr. Harris is now living there.

THE Copper place at Baker's woods adjoining H. S Startt's home has been sold this week by Mr. Walter T. Bramble to Mr. Grover Hatcherson. It contains five acres.

THE first home-grown strawberries of the season were brought to town Tuesday by Mr. Richard C. Williams, of the Chestertown Gardens, across the river. Mr. Williams is a hustler and is bringing his place up to a high state of cultivation. C. E. Kirby and A. W. Carmine had the Queen Anne's berries for sale on Tuesday.

JAMES W. CHAPMAN, JR., ESQ., of Baltimore, attorney, has hold the "Comegys farm," in Quaker Neck, owned by the estate of the late Chas. T. Westcott, to Mr. H. M. Baker, of New York. The tract contains 450 acres. The price is said to have been $17,500. This is one of the best located farms in Kent with a fine view Chester river. Elegant fishing, oysters, plenty of game and colonial house.

THE suit of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company against the Public Service Commission to restrain the enforcement of the commission's order for the operation of the old Kent County Railroad, extending from Worton to Nicholson, three and three-fourth miles, was assigned for trial Monday in Circuit Court No. 2, Baltimore, but was transferred to the Circuit Court because Judge Gorter owns stock of the Pennsylvania Railroad and was ineligible to hear it. It will come up before Judge Duffy next Monday.

KENT COUNTY SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Meetings to be Held Over the County.

The Just Government League of Kent county wants to get votes for women, and therefore has initiated a whirlwind campaign of several weeks. Miss L. C. Trax, State Organizer, is assisting the local league in the work. The following meetings have been planned:

Tuesday, May 20, 8 p. m., Kennedyville, in Weer's Hall.
Wednesday, May 21, 8 p. m., Millington, in the Town Hall.
Thursday, May 22, 8 p. m., Betterton, Dining Room of Chesapeake House.
Friday, May 23, 5 p. m., in K. of P. Hall, Rock Hall.

Among the speakers will be Miss Carpenter, who has the distinction of being one of the first women delegates to take part in a convention for the nomination of President in an old-line political party, for she, with Miss Addams, of Hull House, served in the past Progressive convention as delegates, and is said to be an eloquent speaker

Others who will help in the suffrage campaign are Miss Louise Frazee, of the Johns Hopkins Medical School; Miss Katharine Hill, who has traveled much and studied art in England; Mrs Reiba T. Foster, President of the Maryland Association of Graduate Nurses; Mr. F. F. Ramey and Mr. Thos. G. Campbell, barristers, of Baltimore.

It is hoped that meetings can be arranged for Galena, Worton, Still Pond and Chestertown. The Kent County League has already a membership of 101 people. Mrs. Fred. G. Usilton, Mrs. C. N. Satterfield, Miss Louise Urie and Mrs. Herbert N. Perkins are officers of the League.

On Wednesday, the 14th inst., Fairlee Grange, at its open meeting, gave one-half hour to the discussion of Woman Suffrage, Miss Trax making the address. The National and State Granges endorse woman suffrage, and in the campaign states have helped materially in pushing suffrage propaganda. In Michigan the State Grange opened up headquarters of its own. The Kent League is circulating a petition asking for the submission to the voters of a woman suffrage amendment to the Maryland constitution.

HEAVY FROST AND ICE.

With heavy frosts and ice Saturday Sunday and Monday nights, the indications are that considerable damage was done to fruit and vegetables throughout this peninsula, and one estimate that it would reach a million dollars.

According to the reports which come from the fruit belt, the damage appears to have been greater in the case of vegetables, although it is expected that the later varieties of strawberries have been damaged to a serious extent.

Tomato plants, beans, peas and other vegetables have suffered from the effect of two frosts in succession, and in this county the damage to vegetables has been heavy. The exact amount cannot be ascertained.

WORTON ITEMS.

Albert H. Porter spent a few days with his father last week.

Free.—A suit of clothes free to any man who can conscientiously say that he has not had con plete satisfaction out of the clothing he buys at "The Men's St re" for the price he paid for it. If you fear that this is not the best store of its kind, and will absolutely stand back of this guarantee, why don't you look into the matter further and select a suit and give them a trial. They are as good as their word, and a trial will convince.

A LITTLE daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willet Boyd, of Nottingham, Pa., one day recently got hold of some pills in the absence of her mother from the room, and ate several of the pellets, from the effects of which she died in spite of every effort to save her.
