Closing Out

¶ We have decided that we will not have sufficient room to handle any other shoes in "The Men's Store" except the famous "Walk-Over" Shoes, and in order to make more space for our growing Ready-to Wear Clothing, we intend to utilize our shoe department—and we must get rid of all these shoes.

We, Therefore, Offer the Following Absolutely REGARDLESS OF COST

All Shoes other than the "Walk-Over" of this season and the "Endicott-Johnson" of this season. These two lines we will be obliged to carry the entire year round, but we will close out all others. Now is the time to buy shoes—and good shoes—very cheap. Some of our best grades and a great many of the "Walk-Over" and "Regal" Shoes will be included in this sale. See our big side window and you will realize what tremendous bargains they really are. It will pay you to see them.

¶ Pay a call early, so that you may get a good selection before the stock is broken in sizes and styles. Low shoes and high, button and lace, tan and black, and patent leather will all go REGARDLESS OF COST.

LOCAL NOTES

THE graduates fared well this year. There was one young lady in Chestertown who received a fine Knabe piano, another received a diamond ring and a young man a beautiful gold watch.

SPRING chickens are selling for 25 cents per pound.

THE residence of Mr. George Meekins, at Worton Station, was burned Thursday afternoon. He saved his household goods and had $450 insurance in the Kent Mutual. Origin of fire was a defective flue.

TOLCHESTER is looking prettier than ever, and Supt. Noland and wife extend the glad hand to everyone.

THE college team defeated Rock Hill Saturday 6 to 1.

PITCHER Frank Jarman who signed with the Baltimore National League team about a month ago, was given his initial try-out Saturday, and according to the Baltimore press, made a favorable showing.

THE Harris farm on Grey's Inn Creek has been sold this week to Mr. Walter Kendall, of Worton. Mr. Kendall will tenant his new purchase and a son of Mr. Frank Leaverton will remove to the Wroth farm.

WHILE the freeze shortened the strawberry crop, from all reports the yield, notwithstanding, has been fair and the price very satisfactory. A local grower one day last week sold through the exchange two wagon loads of the Gandy variety, for which he realized $400. Gandies are the popular berries and a large acreage will be put out next year. The season will close this week.

THE appraisers, Messrs. Philip G. Wilmer and John H. Clendaniel, of the personal estate of the late Alday Clements filed an inventory with the Orphans' Court on Tuesday. The inventory shows an appraisement of this stock, farm implements and grain on his seven farms at $42,320.20.50, and stocks and securities are appraised at $31,314.54, making a total appraisement of personalty of $73,635.04.

MONDAY was town election day at Church Hill. The following gentlemen were elected town commissioners—J. K. Brown, J. Carroll Catlin and F. R. McWhorter.

W. H. JACKSON last week shipped from Salisbury 325 fine beef steers, averaging 1,325 lbs. each. Every fall Mr. Jackson fills his cattle yards, with young western steers and feeds them through the season from the products of his farms. It is said that he made $20,000 this year from the business. Large land owners in Kent should investigate.

THE Kent Land Co. sold on Saturday a farm in Winchester, Queen Anne's county, to J. B. Bright, Esq.

THE carriage containing the daughters of Mr. Charles S. Smith was run into Saturday night by colored parties who were racing on Washington avenue, and the whole party thrown out. The ladies were driving a young horse, but he proved quiet and no one was hurt. The two front wheels were crushed and all badly scared. The carriage was pulled into the Jarrell lawn, where it remained Sunday. The ladies made a narrow escape, as they were thrown out near the cement gutter on the avenue.

THE milk station at Worton Station will soon be in operation. A piece of land has been bought of John W. Carter by Henry Hauptfuhrer, and a building is now being erected. This gentleman owns 22 stations in Pennsylvania on a line of 128 miles, and hopes to get more in Kent.

"GOOD-BYE," said little Pearl Clark to the nurses of Emergency Hospital; "you have been awful good and kind to me, and I want to thank all of you." Pearl is the pretty little danseuse of Sanger's circus, which played in Easton several weeks ago. Shortly after leaving Easton with the circus Pearl became ill and was rushed from Chestertown to the Emergency Hospital in an automobile. Here she was operated upon for appendicitis. Last week her sister telegraphed money sufficient for her to rejoin the circus at Windsor, Canada, and she arrived in that city at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. —Easton Star-Democrat.

DEATHS.
