ROCK HALL NOTES.

Mr. B. H. Larrimore, a Kent boy, but for many years past a resident of Newport News, Va., has been here this week looking after the interest of Mrs. W. T. George, who raised him. When "Ben" left here 20 years ago, in his young manhood, he was quite ignorant, with no capacity to make headway in the world. Suddenly realizing his situation, he determined to educate himself. Too old to go to school, he took up the Bible as his text book. He became a Bible student, and to-day he is an eloquent speaker, well stocked with business knowledge. He is prominent as a ship-yard manager, and is in close contact with shipping and business men of all nationalities. He is also prominent as an Odd Fellow, Red Man and Mason.

Mr. Howard Turner, candidate for delegate to the Legislature, was among us on Friday of last week and made a most favorable impression on the voters of this place. Questions of importance likely to bob up in the Legislature next winter were showered upon him, and his open frankness in answering them left no doubt in the minds of any one as to his ability and honesty in meeting these issues. As an Assemblyman, Mr. Turner is a good mixer and no dodger, and these traits we admire. He will thus find out who we are and what we want, and it gives us the assurance that his mixing will be a feature after his election. Hurrah for Turner and Shallcross, too!

Col. Lansing H. Beach, of the Engineering Corps, U. S. A, has notified the parties making the preliminary examination of Huntingfield Creek some time back that their report is unfavorable to the improvement of said creek. This decision is very much regretted by those interested. Huntingfield Creek as a harbor will have to be abandoned, as its mouth is fast closing up.

Captains B. F. Sewell and Chas. Kerr are vieing with each other as to who will sail out of Grey's Inn Creek with the prettiest painted craft. Both vessels are about ready for the summer and fall trading, and are specimens of neat handiwork in overhauling and painting.

Our doctors and druggists are thinking of spending a few months vacation at Atlantic City, (?) as the Red Lyns Indian Medicine Co. has flooded this section with drugs for all the ills of life. They had the right of way here Wednesday night.

Mrs. James A. Casey. who bas been troubled with an eruption on her forehead for years, has been undergoing treatment in the hospital with favorable results. She feels confident of a complete cure.

M. C. H. Jones, one of our jolly hackmen, is the victim of a general breakdown physically. He has been housed up for about three weeks. Mr. Eugene Downey is also on the sick list now.

Mr. Wm. B. Ashley has received a renewal of the contract for carrying the mail from Chestertown to this place.

About 50 of our citizens have been in attendance on the Queen Anne's court this week on the Jones will case.

Quite a number of our citizens saw the airships.

THE Still Pond Farmers Club met Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Harris. Why do some chickens grow too many feathers? Feed, different natures, different breeds were the answers and more beef and meal were recommended. Is the man who has not contracted for tomatoes fortunate? It looks so, as there is every prospect for a big demand for tomatoes on account of shortage in plants, short crop of fruit, etc. The prospect is for late crop of potatoes because many had to be replanted. How will the tariff affect the farmer, brought out a lively discussion. The next meeting will be held at Mr. F. H. Cornelius' last Thursday in September. Those present included R. R. Hill and wife, Mrs. Dan Hill, T. Shafer, Rev. S. Hepburn and wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Roseberry, John N. Bennett, Mrs. Walter Harris, Mrs. Walters, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Frank Hill.

Did you ever see more perfect fits. Let me know please. There's getting to be quite a number walking around. Look at the material, fit and trimmings, then ask them what they paid. Then compare with what you've been paying.

Treat yourself right and I'll abide by the verdict.

Then come to me with your Clothing troubles. I'll diagnose them correctly for you and the small fee will be an agreeable surprise.
