PROGRESSIVE in politics are those who want the offices held by the other fellows.

ARE the citizens of Kent watching the means used by the Barroll faction to win votes. Keep your eyes and ears open and you'll know who has the best interest of the people in keeping. The organization candidates appeal to every good citizen for his support.

THE JARMAN SCHOLARSHIP.

The display article of the Barroll organ headed "The Jarman Scholarship" is really so funny as to be almost pathetic, humor and pathos being clearly connected.

There is nothing in it at all except what the Opposition has manufactured out of the whole cloth. The only thing we are interested in is the statement that Mr. Ahern is entirely free from that wonderful complication. Mr. Ahern did not write to Dr. Jarman, and Dr. Jarman did not write to Mr. Ahern. The Jarman boy received his appointment as to the result of a competitive examination, in which he received a higher average than any of his competitors. Will some sensible man explain to us what all the fuss is about? Will somebody explain how a personal remark of a member of the School Board can place upon the shoulders of the rest of commissioners any official responsibility? Will somebody tell us how the Democratic organization in this county is answerable anyhow, except from the standpoint of a general defense of the right, for the acts of a commission which has a majority of Republican membership?

These questions appeal, we think, to a reasonable, thinking, citizenship. They do not appeal by rampant, political buncome. It is not the sort of argument that needs a double columned, much italized, and highly capitalized, setting.

So far as Urieism—that Anti creation—is concerned, we are absolutely at a loss to see what the Opposition can hope to effect by it. The efforts to bring Mr. Urie into this campaign are so easy to understand, and so weak and childish, that we cannot believe otherwise than they indicate a desperate condition of the Antis; a catching at straws to save themselves from drowning.

The Barroll organ made the statement that Mr. Urie was seeking to aid Mr. Ahern in his fight for the treasurership. It made the statement with a view to injuring his candidacy before the people. What other defense is the Organization called upon to make in connection with the campaign, than to free Mr. Ahern from any complicity in the Jarman affair?

Any action on the part of Mr. Vickers looking to an investigation of Mr. Urie's conduct would be separate and distinct from any issue connected with a Democratic primary contest, and should never be used in consideration of the same.

The trouble is, the imagination of the Barroll scribe is so vivid, and his inferences so unreasonable and devoid of foundation in fact, as to prevent his confining himself to healthy argument; but he seeks to foist upon the public a lot of sensational, irrelevant, campaign stuff, intended to befuddle and befog the real situation, and appeal to a constituency that loves a fight for a fight's sake, and not for any principle involved.

LAST Friday Gov. Goldsborough announced the appointment of James P. Curley of Laurel, Prince George's county, State Game Warden to succeed Franklin E. Cox, of Somerset county, removed. Mr. Curley is a Republican, a lawyer and, on the side, the editor of the Laurel Leader, the only Republican paper published in Prince George's county.

POLITICAL LEADERSHIP.

"When the old Organization leaders were living they had all the political sense and acutenes that was necessary to lead their faction, but since their death there is no one man or combination of men who have political shrewdness enough to run the faction." (Transcript July 19, 1913.

The above was put into the mouth of a lady by the shrewd political leader of the Barroll organ. We are willing to allow that it was said by a lady, realizing that it is only another straw at which the drowning Barrollites are grabbing.

But as the fact contained in the above clipping is one that the opposition seems to think all voters should realize, inasmuch as it has crept into the brain of one of the weaker sex, we presume that the Transcript scribe, being one of the voters, realizes that fact along with the other great men of the county.

Now these dead and gone Organization leaders referred to are such men as Dr. Sam'l Beck, Wm. B. Usilton, Marion de Kalb Smith, Richard D. Hynson, Dr. Frank W. Hines, Harrison W. Vickers, Jas. L. Beck, Samuel Cacy, and others—all sterling men in whatever light you consider them.

But we are somewhat surprised that the Barroll organ should speak of them in such a eulogistic way. It has not been long since it came out in a wonderful Ciceronian burst or oratory "calling" upon all the living leaders of the Organization to come forward and give to the world such past history in their possession as would show these same dead and gone democrats guilty of the vilest crimes in the political calendar; guilty of methods so mistaken as to lead the Organization forces right into "jaws of death, into the mouth of hell"; guilty of all sorts political chicanery, and guilty of treason to the old Democracy of Kent.

We notice these "calls" were not answered—being treated with the silent contempt they deserve.

Now, inasmuch as the death of these lamented citizens of our commonwealth has deprived the county of all Organization leadership, the "shrewd" political scribe of the Transcript would insinuate that all the wisdom, forsight, hindsight, strategy, and acumen, have made their appearance on the Anti side of the contending forces; and all these qualities are there, we would remind the public, mainly because he says they are.

That is the fact, because in looking over the ranks of the two divisions we see that all the real, capable leaders; those who have had the cloaks of those eulogized by the Transcript thrown over their shoulders; a majority of the substantial citizenship of this county; those who are looked upon as the backbone of all our achievement—all these are still with the regular Democracy; while on the other side there is one man; and if it were not for that one man—where would the faction go?—to everlasting smithereens.

Further, the death of the older heads has allowed the young blood to step into political leadership.

The dearth of leadership among the staunch democracy of old Kent is a vision that the Barrollites would like to become a realty, but which is still a vision, and one which even the "lady" in question would have to look at only a little while to realize that it is a Barrollite bogey, pure and simple.

The heritage, too, of the old leadership left to the younger men has made the Organization party specially adopted for the extension of party lines along the way of modern progressive politics. Any unprejudiced mind looking at the composition of the two so-called factions, would readily conclude that the principles of Wilson progressiveism are safer under the banner of the young democracy of the old united party, than under the old democracy of the new political severance.

For the Barrollites are nothing more than recruits from the old Organization, while the old Organization has been revived and rejuvenated by the coming to manhood and leadership of the scions of the old masterful leaders.

This is proven by the support of the Organization given to Wilson democracy in the government at large, and of Lee progressiveism in the State. It is true that at the National Convention in Baltimore Maryland's delegation stood for a long time for Champ Clark as the presidential nominee; and the Organization in Kent backed up the judgment rendered at the State Convention when it elected Clark delegates.

It will also be remembered that Hope H. Barroll's name was prominently mentioned as a delegate to the National Convention upon a Clark platform, and we never heard any dissent from him; also it may be recalled that the Barroll faction lost the opportunity of its life when it got behind Gorman for Governor and turned down this same Lee it is so strongly championing at present.

So, until Wm. L. Marbury appeared upon the political horizon the course of the Barrollites and that of the Organization were mainly harmonious in State slates—they pose as wonderful reformers in their home county, but willing to eat the rotten fruit from the Organization political State tree.

When then the Maryland delegation turned to Woodrow Wilson, the Organization Democracy gladly raised his banner to their mast head, and fought his battles along with his strongest adherents. And today we are behind Blair Lee, that we honestly opposed last time, but whom the Barrollites were afraid to adopt.

So we again state and strongly affirm that today the Organization democracy is under the strongest leadership that the time and occasion could demand. It is as stated in a previous issue, under the dominion of no one man, but it is a body of intelligent, capable, honest men working for the good of all; and, in its ticket presented to the voters of Kent, revealing a set of men, that factional prejudice removed there would be not the slightest difficulty in deciding in whose hands the welfare of our county would be safest.

We ask the intelligent consideration of that ticket, and a critical examination of its men as qualified for the offices for which they have been presented.

MONDAY the patriotic citizens of St. Michaels, Talbot county, celebrated the one hundreth anniversary of the battle of St. Michaels, which took place on August 10th, 1813, in which the doughty Marylanders successfully repulsed the attack of a detachment of Admiral Cockburn's fleet and killed two British officers and twenty-seven men without the loss of a single man of the American forces. Among those who had a part were Rev. George Q Bacchus, Prof. Owen C. Blades. Hon. Blair Lee, Harry Covington, Senator Dodson and others.

A CALL for a conference of Republicans was called by J. D. Urie, Esq., Chairman of the Republican party for Kent county to meet at the Voshell House yesterday. Next Monday is the last day for filing nomination papers. This conference recommended the following ticket: Legislature, Jos. Mallalieu, of Millington; Henry Brown, Quaker Neck; treasurer, J. B. Burchinal, Chestertown; commissioners, Harry Williams, Worton, Carey Rinehart, Fairlee; Sheriff, L. A. Pennington, Kennedyville; State Delegates, Daniel Hill, E. A. Corey, Baynard Harper; State Central Committee, John D. Urie, T. H. M. Bramble and a colored man to be selected by them.

THE BARROLL-TOWNSHEND ORGAN.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

It is reported on good authority that Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., the Republican Bull Moose leader in Kent, is bending all his efforts toward the success of the Anti-Organization ticket. Mr. Townshend poses as the representative of progressive principles in Republican politics; Mr. Barroll parades himself as the great exponent of Democratic progressiveness. These two, then, claim to have interest in common, and, it is said, are working hand in hand for Anti welfare.

This rumor is well-founded from the fact that Mr. Townshend has been seen, very frequently of late, visiting the editorial sanctum of the Barroll organ. "Where there is so much smoke, there must be some fire."

In view of that wonderfully "strong (?)" article which appeared in a recent issue of the Anti sheet entitled, "Outside Interference," we are a little bit surprised that this Republican aid had not been more carefully concealed; but such widespread circulation has been given to this report, that there must be truth in it.

"Oh! consistency, thou art a jewel." We are now at liberty to use the word "Townshendism," and are rich in the possession of a new name for our esteemed contemporary. We can now call it "The Barroll-Townshend Organ."

A CARD

To my friends in Kent County.

After careful consideration of my candidacy for the Sheriff's office, I have concluded that since I have no family, nor any one who can assist me in properly keeping the county jail in the cooking, attending to prisoners, etc., that it is best for me to withdraw from the contest in favor of Mr. Robert J. McWhorter. I wish to thank my friends most warmly for the encouragement they have given to me and to earnestly request them to unite with me in supporting the entire Anti Organization ticket and especially in supporting Mr. McWhorter for Sheriff and defeating the Organization candidate for this office.
