We are all Democrats now and for the whole ticket as nailed at the mast-head of the KENT NEWS.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS made fight Monday and won. New blood has been infused into the organization.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

We believe the readers of the NEWS and the people in general will, with us, heave a sigh of great relief that the present political struggle has ended. It has been a contest waged on one side since last election and only began to be waged on this side when the opposition became unfair to express it mildly.

The Organization has won a great victory. They did not win all that they would like to have won, but the best and most important places were captured. They have the consciousness of knowing that they played fair, fought a clean campaign and won despite the means used by their opponents. They won with good men on a progressive platform.

John P. Ahern was defeated, but there is no one man in the Organization to whom is due more credit for the great victory than to him. His entrance into the fight brought ginger and aggressiveness and his precinct rallied nobly to his help but Galena and Kennedyville threw him down. Mr. Ahern had a coterie of workers that were tireless and did good work.

Capt. E. M. Taylor and Capt. Henry Thompson were two good men but defeated by a very narrow margin and by a trick that is condemned by all upright citizens.

Rock Hall and Edesville precincts are entitled to the banner this year. Boys, you did finely. Walter Hadaway, that earnest Anti worker, claimed 100 majority, but his 100 was turned into a victory for the Organization! Oh, what a change—for the better.

Chestertown district held her own and the people here again gave to Mr. Barroll and his methods a stinging rebuke.

Fairlee showed up well as did Betterton also. Worton and Pomona leaders put up a plucky fight and put in hard licks for the Organization candidates. Kennedyville and Galena leaders had a hard struggle against big odds and deserve credit for doing what they could.

The whole community have reason for congratulations over the victory. It should be a rebuke to misrepresentation, vituperation, slander and abuse. The men who were the most abused got the biggest majorities! Charles L. Dodd, that invincible warrior, lead the host, while Howard Turner, the Pride of Kent, came next, with Robert A. Shallcross, the Organization's friend, a close third. Wm. E. Brown got a good vote, defeating a strong man in Robt. McWhorter. "Dick" Rasin, proud to be a hustler, defeating Capt. George E. Noland, the popular Tolchester superintendent, while the State delegates, Barnett, Hadaway and Skirven had foemen worthy of their steel.

It is interesting to note the majorities of the winners:

Turner, 64; Shallcross, 46.
Caldwell, 69; Brown, 72.
Crew, 5; Wood, 6.
Dodd, 171; Rasin, 120; McKee, 10.
Barnett, 115: Hadaway, 103; Skirvin, 83.

THE people of this community heard the big lecture by Dr. Cadman Saturday night and Sunday afternoon listened to his splendid sermon. At night Rev. Edgar Russell Perry preached on "Be Fair" to a fine audience. Dr. W. R. Graham, Dr. L. Barrett and Rev. T. N. Given occupied seats on the platform. Fine singing was rendered by the National Opera Quartette.

TUESDAY, September 16th, 12 o'clock noon, is the date of the Democratic State Convention. It will be held at the Auditorium Theatre, Howard street near Franklin, Baltimore. The delegates can obtain their badges by applying at headquarters on the morning of the 16th up to 11.30 o'clock.

SENATOR GORE came to town unaccompanied and was entertained at the Voshell House. Although blind he is able to find his way about the country with wonderful ease. Mr. Geo. Baldwin in Mr. W. Frank Jarrell's big car carried the noted speaker to and from the Chautauqua. The Senator was greatly pleased at his reception here. There were about 1,000 people present to hear him.

IT is charged that the Antis voted 23 Republicans in one precinct and one of these was a Republican official! In another a Republican official not only voted, but did it after 6 o'clock! In another precinct State's Attorney Vickers name was forged to a letter or note in order to influence a voter against voting the Organization ticket! and yet the Antis try to sail under "Reform" and "Progressive" banners!

EVERY feature of the Chautauqua was a success. The attendance was splendid and our people are full of the Chautauqua spirit. Over 600 pledges were secured for their return and 35 responsible names were gotten as guarantors. Everyone of the old guarantors again became responsible—even tho' it cost them $4 apiece this year. Many of them claim that the visit of Bryan alone was worth this much!

BARROLL STIRS UP STRIFE

Some excitement was caused in Chestertown Monday by the altercation on Court street between Hope H. Barroll and son, Wethered, and State's Attorney H. W. Vickers. It seems as if a voter had been talking with Mr. Vickers and afterward went into Mr. Barroll's office, came out and got into an Organization machine to go to Fairlee to vote. Mr. Vickers gave directions to the chauffeur where to go and was leaving the machine when Mr. Barroll loudly screamed out, "Look at him. Haven't we got a dandy for a State's Attorney!"

Mr. Vickers retorted and Wethered undertook to strike him but the crowd surged in and separated them.

In this connection we would state that Mr. Wethered Barroll is a voter in Baltimore but thought so little of it that he spent the whole day in Kent.

MR. BRYAN'S PAY.

All sorts of stories are current concerning the amount of remuneration received by Mr. Bryan for his chautauqua work. Really he makes what the Chautauqua Association considers the fairest contract offered them. He gets 50 per cent. of the gate receipts on the day he lectures. The first $250 taken in goes to him, the next goes to the association. All above that amount is evenly divided between the two. If Mr. Bryan should fail to draw, the association would not lose any money. He is the only man on the platform who makes such a contract, the only man who dares to do it, because he is the only man who draws his own fee at the gate. He makes no charges for the people who come on season tickets. There were 1289 at the meeting in town last week including season tickets.

ORGANIZATION WINS

Blair Lee Has Friends in All Ranks —Results in Various Counties— McNulty Wins to the Delight of Many Here.

The State organization maintained its grip in the Monday primary. Roughly, the indications now are that in the State convention, which will meet next Tuesday, the "old guard" will have nearly 90 votes, while the progressives will have in the neighborhood of 40. There are 129 members of the State convention. This practically assures the re-election of Gen. Murray Vandiver as State chairman, if he sticks to his determination to be a candidate.

In summing up the various fights the Baltimore Sun says:

There was a clear-cut issue between the machine in Montgomery, Harford, Carroll and Washington. In each of those counties the issues made themselves. Montgomery and Harford returned smashing progressives victories; Carroll gave the progressives the better of it, and Washington—in which the machine was unbeatable hitherto—gave the progressives the smaller part of the ticket.

For example again, the Anne Arundel there was not so clear-cut an issue, because Dr. George Wells is fixed in the hearts of many of the people there as an original progressive, even though in latter years he has trained with the State people and has had with him such out-and-out local machine men. Also he was the man who gave that county to Woodrow Wilson in the primaries. Caroline county was another in which the organization had progressive aspects. In both Anne Arundel and Caroline the progressives gave pitched battle to the "old guard," and in both they were soundly whipped.

The most spectacular of the fights, of course, were those in Montgomery and Harford counties. In the former Blair Lee, who has been taunted by machine people because he did not caary it for Woodrow Wilson against the Peter brothers, who were for Champ Clark, made up his mind that he would see what was what. He swept the county clean. In Harford, one of the deepest-dyed of the machine counties for years, James J. Archer, leading the progressives, made another sweep, defeating Walter W. Preston, a brother of Mayor James H. Preston, and carrying through the entire progressive ticket.

Frederick county's fight was a stand-off.

In Carroll county the fight was between the progressives who backed Lee in 1911 and Wilson in 1912, led by Guy W. Steele, and the "old guard," lead by Edward O. Weant. The ticket is split from top to bottom, but Weant was beaten for member of the State Central Committee and Steele won most of the county delegation, the county committee and the county offices.

Arthur P. Gorman's organization had little trouble in keeping control in Howard county. The progressives will have only 4 delegates out of 30 in the county convention—Howard still has the convention system for county nominations—and will not be able to exert serious influence.

Dr. George Wells swept the decks in Anne Arundel. Dr. Wells is probably stronger now than he was before the fight was made against him.

Ray On Top In Prince George's.

In Prince George's county, always hot-bed of politics and usually in a factional condition sufficient to cause brain fag to the man who would unravel affairs, the Ray organization won, nominating William F. Holmead for State Senator over Carter Lee Bowie.

J. Frank Smith demonstrated that in St. Mary's he and his friends are still in control, despite Lee's victory there in his Gubernatorial fight. They seem to have won a complete victory, nominating Dr. Walter H. Dent for the State Senate over T. Lee Mattingly and gaining the State Central Committee and the County delegation.

The Crothers boys lost in Cecil. Byron Bouchelle, who was supported by the Constables, was nominated for State Senator easily and the balance of the ticket backed by the State machine went through except one nomination for County Commissioner.

Kent swung back to the Beck-Wickes faction. In the fight two years ago H. H. Barroll won most of County ticket and control of the State Central Committee. This time his opponents have gotten practically the same position. Ordinarily the Barroll people are regarded as the progressives, but the Blair Lee leaders are disposed to be more friendly toward the Beck faction, and lately there have been signs that the Beck-Wickes people were getting closer and closer to the Lee forces.

Queen Anne's divided between John E. George and his opponents, who were led in the first instance by James T. Bright and were later supported by Thomas J. Keating and a number of the latter's associates. George won most of the slate, but he was given a shock and it is thought likely he will have more trouble in the next county fight.

In Caaoline there was a tremendous struggle between Thomas A Smith and the old organization and Henry R. Lewis and a following of progressives. Smith won. In that fight, however, the Smith people claimed with considerable justification that they were real progressives, pointing to the support of Lee and Wilson by a number of the strong men of their organization. Lewis is unimpeachably a progressive, having been an old Bryan man, but he had identified with him several men who were for Gorman two years ago and who have trained rather consistently with that element.

Miles Wins Hard Battle.

Joshua W. Miles carried Somerset against the hardest fight he has had in many years. He and his friends are allied with the Lee people. The Waters Quinn people also claimed to be progressives and based the claim upon their support of Lee and Wilson. Mr. Miles seems to have demonstrated a strength much like that of Dr. Wells and, like him again, he is probably stronger now than before the fight.
